THOUSANDS OF VISITORS WILL BE IN ATTENDANCE AT THE LOS ANGELES RODEO

Los Angeles is making final preparations this week to entertain the thousands of visitors expected for the big nine-day Fiesta and Rodeo celebration, which the 1915 General Committee is staging from May 1 to 9 to add to the festivities of the Golden State during Exposition Year.

Leading off with the great street pageant, "The Story of the Golden West," the program includes floral pageants Saturday and Monday, and the 1915 Rodeo running through nine days. The pageants will be street affairs, free to all; the Rodeo will be held in the big stadium at Hooper avenue and East Thirty-fifth street.

"The Story of the Golden West" will be an effort to visualize the life of a romantic past; the successive days of the Indian, the Spanish conquistador, the padres, the gold hunters and the plain pioneer. Entries for the pageant have been coming in from all over the state, and when the procession moves Saturday morning it will be perhaps the most complete show of its kind ever undertaken.

As for the electrical pageant, "Queen Flora, a Feast of Flowers," Saturday evening, its beauties can only be surmised, for Fawcett Robinson, the creator of the floats, has kept them under cover. But even their assured beauty cannot surpass the living beauty of the girls and flowers that will be used Monday in the "La Fiesta de las Flores" pageant. It will be an attempt to depict the floral wealth of the Southland at the time when, above all others, the roses and the other flowers, wild and cultivated, are at their best. This parade will begin moving at 10 o'clock, and, like the others, will traverse the business streets.

Prize money totalling $2675 will be awarded for the most artistically arranged entries in this pageant. This money will be awarded in sums ranging from $200 to $5.

At the head of the pageant, which will be in six divisions, directed by Gen. Wankowski as grand marshall, will be the decorated autos entered by the Board of Supervisors, the City Council and the Chamber of Commerce.

Municipal floats have been entered by the following cities: Santa Ana, Pasadena, Long Beach, Ocean Park, Huntington Park, Monrovia, Azusa, Gardena, Montebello, Inglewood and Fullerton. Chambers of Commerce and Boards of Trade of other Los Angeles county cities have expressed their intention of participating by making entries.

Lindsay, Tulare county, will show the orange from bud to ripe fruit. Upon this float will ride the Tulare orange queen and her court of pretty girls.

In Class H there will be many elaborate floats, including a strong German-American representation by the German-American Alliance, the Saengerfest Committee and the Turn Verein Germania.

Among conspicuously elaborate entries in this class will be that of the Japanese Association of Southern California, which will be a pageant in itself, with its own Oriental fiesta queen and her court.

Leading women of motion picture companies will be seen upon floats in this part of the production.

The fire department, which will be represented by 12 pieces of apparatus will be the feature.

Among the marching clubs entered are the four companies of the Y. M. I. battalion, under command of Major L. Irwin; the White Star Patrol of the Glendale Lodge of Elks, and the White Squadron of the Los Angeles Elks.

The full membership of the Knights of the Rose Tournament, Pasadena, will take part in the pageant. In red

H. E. BETZ BLOCK AT ACACIA AND BRAND CREDIT TO CITY

The H. E. Betz block, corner of Brand and Acacia, is now ready for tenants. The north end of the building is now occupied. The Metz car agency will occupy a section and the main garage will be rented soon. The Betz block is 100x100 feet, one story high, built of red tapestry brick trimmed with black tapestry brick; cement floors throughout; water, gas and electricity. There are 12 skylights and eight ventilators. There is an outlet in the rear 40 feet wide that opens out into Acacia avenue. On Acacia the rear of the building is shut from the street view by a brick fence that matches the brick work of the building.

The north room, occupied by Scovern, Letton, Frey Co., is 100x40 feet. This is divided off into rooms to accommodate the tenants. In the main office of these rooms Mr. Betz has installed a cream rug brick mantle. This is the first to be set up and is very attractive.

A show room 50x20 feet has been leased by the Metz Agency.

A room 30x14 feet will be leased to a barber.

The south room is for a garage with 6000 square feet of floor space. This garage is fitted with offices, ladies' and gent's dressing rooms, pit to accommodate three cars, center floor drain, gas, etc.

Every point possible has been looked to for comfort and convenience to tenants.

Mr. Betz, brick contractor of Glendale, is the owner and builder. His confidence in the future of Tropico is evidenced by the investment and Tropico gains, too, for new blocks mean new business, new people and new prospects. The sound of the hammer means prosperity.

SEASON'S RAINFALL

Continued fall of light rains are slowly bringing up the season's fall. While the record is several inches less than last year it is estimated that this season's fall is of more value to the rancher , with no loss by damage.

"POLLY OF THE CIRCUS" GIVEN BY G. U. H. S. ALUMNI SCORES A BIG HIT

Score a big honor for the alumni of the Tropico-Glendale Union high school. Last Thursday and Friday evenings the play "Polly of the Circus" drew large crowds that were more than pleased with the outcome of the alumni's first efforts.

The staging of an amateur production is far from an easy task, and when a play is produced that carries with it as much of real hard work and study as "Polly of the Circus" did the task is more so. Mrs. Elinor Lincoln Brown, to whom the task was given, proved herself amply able. But we must have reckoned with the cast in her endeavors, for "Polly of the Circus" required talented people and everyone who took part are talented.

The portrayal of the circus rider, who, through an accident, was thrown into the company of a minister who later gave up the sawdust life for one so entirely different, was carried out according to the author's plans in a way that brought the audience through each scene so vividly that the underlying theme was achieved.

The staging showed attention to detail, which is so often overlooked in amateur productions. The audience was made to feel that there was a circus by the band off-stage, the clowns, tents and horse.

Miss Barbara Mitchell, as "Polly," around whom the entire action of the play was centered, gave her very best to making the play a success. She was well chosen for the part. Dwight Stephenson, in the trying part of the play, did justice in a natural way. His portrayal of a minister who could do his chosen work while his disgruntled flock protested, was very creditable. Gladys Justema as "Mandy" and Frank Littell as "Hasty" were perfectly cast as the colored housekeeper and servant. Owen Emery as the boss canvasman and James Ilse as the circus boss carried off the curcus end to perfection. Owen Rhodes as "Toby" had an extremely hard part and his delineation of the character was without a flaw. Elsie Church as Julia Strong, Rae Davis as Mrs. Willoughby and Winnie Sinclair as Miss Perkins did full justice to their respective parts. A. Gossman and Vernon Snively, as the two militant deacons, were very good. The little Davis boy and other children who were cast in the play are worthy of mention, as are the others who so graciously lent their assistance to make "Polly of the Circus" a success.

MRS. RICH RETAINS THE USE AND ENJOYMENT OF HUSBAND'S ESTATE

As is generally known, the will of James Rich, late Mayor of Tropico, creates a life estate in his widow of all his property. The application for an order giving the will judicial effect, came up for hearing before Judge Wilbur of the Superior Court on the 27th. On an examination of the provisions of the will it was held by his honor that the statutory period of ten months should elapse for the payment of claims that may come against the estate before the order could be entered, but without prejudice to the widow's right to continue in the use and enjoyment, management and disposal of the property in full accord with the provisions of the will for the term of her natural life, and with due regard to the deceased husband's express wishes. Mrs. Rich was led into having the will probated, in violation of her husband's explicit directions set forth in the will, on the advice of a lawyer who is no longer the attorney of the estate. She regrets the misstep, but has the consolation of knowing that no harm will come of it, at least to herself and her children.

CLEAN UP MAY 8.

May 8 is officially designated as clean up day in Tropico. The following editorial is clipped from the Catalina Wireless and can serve a purpose in Tropico too—read it.

Clean-up Week represents the best investment of energy American home-makers can make. It stands for healthier families, happier homes, higher real estate values and better citizenship. Every week ought to be a Clean-up Week.

While you are at it just remember that it isn't enough to be clean yourself and in your home—it is the cleanliness of your neighbors that counts in the ultimate result. The flies that breed your neighbors' garbage pail, in the dirty alley out of sight, in the refuse pile of a liverary stable on the other side of the town, will carry germs of disease into your immaculate home. Some one else's damp cellar or seeping cespool or germ-infested spot can start an epidemic which the sanitation of your own home cannot overcome.

Clean your own home first, because none can throw himself heart and soul into a municipal house-cleaning campaign if their own home needs attention. Keep your rubbish in one container and your garbage in another, the latter well covered and water tight.

In Shreveport, Louisiana, they were once fly-infested and had a high death rate. The city passed an ordinance compelling all dealers in foodstuffs and all owners of stables and barns to install a huge fly-trap made of wire screening on their premises. Business men who did not deal in foodstuffs and housewives with no barns on their premises, watched the fine way in which these great traps caught and held thousands of flies and through sheer civic pride and desire for cleanliness, everybody, whether affected by the law or not, began to install traps. Last year Shreveport, Louisiana, made a new record—it had not a single death from infantile paralysis, and only one death from typhoid. It costs seventy-five cents a year to run a fly-trap.

First cousin to a refuse-strewn alley is that weed-choked lot between you and your neighbor. Under the weeds lurk tin cans with putrefying foodstuffs hugging their tin sides and breeding more flies and mosquitoes, dirty rags that ought to be burned, half-rotten fruits and vegetables, perhaps a dead dog or cat or rat. Did yo uever think what sort of stuff this is for your children to play among or trudge through when they strike across lots to school? Clean up.

Clean your street. You don't think much of a woman who sweeps the dirt from the house into the street? Don't you judge a neighborhood by the condition of the gutters and streets?

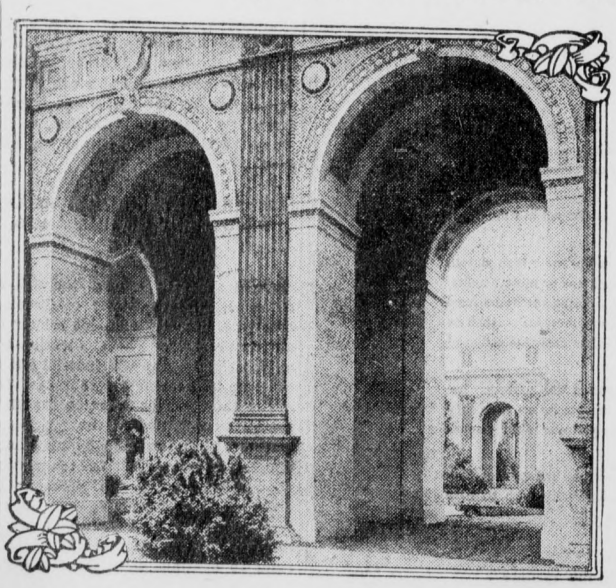
Wherever Uncle Sam's soldiers have gone in the tropics—Cuba, Mexico, Panama, the Philippines, they have cleaned up first. They have lived clean and have commanded respect.

Clean your markets. Make it very clear that a merchant who sweeps the trash from his store into the front street or the back alley is not a desirable citizen worthy of your trade.

Clean your schools. Do you know whether your schools are kept clean and how they are cleaned? Do you know whether they are freed from dust and germs, or whether they are sprinkled with a disinfectant? Have you ever seen the toilet rooms and lavatories—do you know whether the plumbing is in good condition?

Clean your churches. Do you know how long since the old carpet in the pulpit has been beaten? Did you ever pass your finger-tip along the edge of the window? Do you know whether the sexton airs the church after service or closes it up, germs and all? Clean your movie theatre, your post office your stables, your public halls, create a desire for general sanitation, cleanliness and beauty in your city. Perhaps this looks like a big contract in municipal or civic house-cleaning, but stop to organize the work and you will find the individual burden light.

Lofty Colonnades of the Superb Court of the Four Seasons, Panama-Pacific International Expositlon, San Francisco, 1915



THIS photograph faintly portrays the beauty of the arches that stand between the Court of the Four Seasons and the Western Venetian Court. While it truly presents the attractiveness of the architecture, it cannot even hint at the beauty of color tones.

The pilasters shown in this photograph are of verd antique bronze, the background of imitation Travertine is of ocher hue more than half the height of the arch, and the upper portion is of Pompeiian red, with touches of orange and copper green in the ornamentation.

Inside the arches the ceilings are of cerulean blue, and bas-relief in white shows scenes typical of the seasons. The square wall surface at the left of the picture shows where one of many mural paintings will be placed.

Looking through the arch, a part of the Court of the Four Seasons may be seen. Closer inspection shows a verse from Spenser and below it the signs of the Zodiac.

The world is to be given something new in the system of courts at the 1915 Exposition, and each one is to be a revelation in modern construction. The Exposition will open at San Francisco on Feb. 20, 1915.

THOUSANDS TO ATTEND LOS ANGELES RODEO

and white hunting costume and riding beautiful horses, they will be commanded by Liege Lord Frank G. Hogan.

Thirteen bands will furnish music for the pageant. These musical organizations will be headed by the 1915 City and County Band.

Hundreds of horses will be seen in the fifth or equestrian division. A majority of these will be ridden by the Westerners, the typical Southwestern organization of both men and women; and by the cow boys from all the range states of the West, here to participate in the 1915 Rodeo.

Another division of the pageant will be composed of six day-light floats prepared by Fawcett Robinson, America's foremost artistic electrical designer. These floats, which collectively will be designated as "The Queen and Her Court," will be unique in that their like never before has been produced anywhere.

The title of these floats will be: "Ben Hur," "Fairy Queen," "Naiad Queen," "American Beauty Rose," "Sleeping Beauty," "Animated Flowers."

Still another division of the pageant will be made up of a silken Chinese dragon of great length, which will make its way through the streets attended by an Orientally-garbed retinue.

Preparations are complete at the Stadium for producing the 1915 General Committee's rodeo, in which will appear the most daring horsemen and horsewomen west of the Mississippi.

There will be 1000 riders and more than a thousand horses at this old Southwest range festival, and a thrill a minute every afternoon for nine days, beginning Saturday, is the program promised.

Riders now in Los Angeles awaiting the call to ride the most famous bucking horses in America represent California, New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado, Montana, Wyoming and other states.

The Rodeo proper will start Saturday afternoon, May 1, in the Stadium at 35th and Hooper streets, Los Angeles, one of the largest open air amusement centers in the world.

Here is the complete program as announced by Motley H. Flint, chairman of the 1915 General Committee of Los Angeles city and county.

Saturday, May 1, 10 a. m., "The Story of the Golden West." Wonderful street pageant, portraying the thrilling pioneer days of Western life. There will be included in this parade many old-time relics, reminiscent of the early development of California—prairie schooners, mining outfits, fire apparatus and paraphernalia, stage coaches, pack trains, chuck wagons, cowboys, range riders from the plains and desert, and representative riders from great ranches of the country famous in the history of the development of the great Southwest.

Saturday, May 1, 2 o'clock, opening of Great Rodeo or Roundup. Continuing each afternoon up to and including May 9, at the Stadium, 35th and Hooper avenue, seating over 20,000 people. Biggest thing of its kind ever held. Greatest aggregation of bucking horses ever brought together at one point. Actual conditions of range life, with its perils and hardships presented by daring cowboys and cowgirls. Riding and roping, relay races, stage coach races, pony express, races and exhibitions of bucking horses riding, in which the most vicious equines from seven states will appear.

Saturday, May 1, 8 p. m., great electrical pageant, Queen Flora, a feast of flowers. The crowning achievement of Fawcett Robinson, the world's greatest decorative electrical artist. The last word in perfection of artistic creation. Fifteen floats. Subjects: "America," "California," "Snowdrop and Crocus," "Tulips," "Poeny," Hibiscus," "Bluebell," "Violet," "A Native Son," "Queen Flora," "Rose," "Evening Primrose,"' "Magnolia," "Sunflower," "Forget-Me-Not."

Monday, May 3, 10 a. m., la fiesta de las floras. The great floral parade, consisting of the following divisions: 1. Westerners, equestrians and equestrian organizations; 2, Florally decorated automobiles and vehicle; 3, great Chinese dragon; 4, daylight pageant (something never before successfully demonstrated), under personal direction of Fawcett Robinson; six floats, the queen and her court; subjects of floats, "Ben Hur," "Fairy Queen," "Naiad Queen," "American Beauty Rose," "Sleeping Beauty," "Animated Flowers;" 5, floats of social, civic and fraternal organizations and moving picture producing companies; 6, marching clubs; 7, floats of Southern California cities and municipalities; 8, Los Angeles fire department.

Mrs. William Harvey Jr., entertained at 5 o'clock tea last Sunday, in honor of Rev. Arthur Rogers, who delivered a lecture on South Africa at the Presbyterian church, later in the evening.

Any one wishing to donate towards the expense of putting the Tropico Municipal Playgrounds in condition may do so by leaving same at the First National Bank.

Owing to the delay in getting the grounds in shape, the cafeteria supper and opening of the Tropico Municipal Playgrounds is postponed until Friday, May 7.

The final report of the management shows that the receipts were $300, and after all expenses had been paid there was a balance of $90.30, which goes to the benefit of the alumni. The management reports that every cent of expense went to people in the valley.

Every boy in Tropico will cast longing eyes at the "coaster" in the window of the Coffer Grocery until May 29, when the coaster will be given to the one holding the lucky number. Every purchaser wil receive a cash register ticket, which will be deposited in a box and on May 29th the drawing will take place.

A large number of people enjoyed a lecture at the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening delivered by Rev. Arthur Rogers, of England, on "South Africa." Rev. Rogers has spent several years in South Africa, and is in this country now lecturing and securing data for lectures to be delivered in South Africa on "America."

Miss Dorothy Leech of 118 West Palmer avenue entertained a number of friends last Wednesday evening, April 21st, in honor of Mr. Charles Joseph Rittenhouse and bride (nee Flower) of Hollywood. Rittenhouse, Misses Ida Potter, Harriet Links, Hazel Flower and Irene Meyer and Messrs. Edward Yarter of Los Angeles, James Grindell of St. Louis, James McBridge, Elmer and Jesse Flower of Glendale.

Chapter A. H., P. E. O., met at the home of Mrs. Wattles on Glendale avenue, Friday, April 23rd. A business meeting was held at 12 o'clock and was followed by luncheon, at which the chapter had the pleasure of having Miss Eula Richardson as guest of honor.

The all-day meeting of N. P. Banks, G. A. R. and W. R. C. at the G. A. R. hall last Friday was highly enjoyed by everyone present. Beans, of Los Angeles, gave a humorous talk followed by a pem by Bret Harts. O. J. Nave gave a short talk and Mrs. C. C. Chandler recited a patriotic poem.

A CLEVER SHOW

The Moulan Comedy Co., who played a two nights' engagement at the Star Theater last week, proved such a drawing card that Manager Eudemiller, who is ever on the lookout for the best of everything to offer his patrons, has booked the company for a return engagement Saturday and Sunday of this week. Their performances include musical numbers, comedy playlets, singing, dancing and talking, magic and cartooning.

A rare treat is in store for those who visit the Star Saturday and Sunday evenings of this week.

Officers and members of the Thursday Afternoon Club and their husbands were most delightfully entertained at the K. P. Hall last Wednesday evening by the hospitality committee of the club. Auction, bridge and five hundred occupied the evening with refreshments at the close. The committee in charge was, Mrs. J. Herbert Smith, chairman; Mrs. A. L. Fryer, Mrs. A. J. Becker, Mrs. Chas. Phillips, Mrs. O. E. Clements, Mrs. Leigh Bancroft, Mrs. Wesley H. Bullis, Mrs. Jno. A. Logan, Mrs. H. H. Davenport and Mrs. Frank Peters.

L. G. Scovern and family have moved to 112 East Acacia St.

The nominating committee of the Thursday Afternoon Club have reported the following nominations for officers for the ensuing year, who will be voted upon at the next regular meeting:

Vice President—Mrs. C. H. Barker.
Recording Secretary—Mrs. H. T. Goodwin.
Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. C. H. Woolsey.
Treasurer—Miss Ida Meyers.
Member-at-Large—Mrs. J. H. Webster.

The committee failed to secure a nomination for the office of president.

Through the efforts of J. B. Treadwell all civic and legislative bodies of the surrounding larger cities have dispatched word to Sacramento asking Gov. Johnson not to sign the legislative bill allowing the county of Los Angeles to bond itself for the construction of a storm water protective system until he has had a chance to hear the arguments of all protestants.

The bill does not automatically saddle a bonded debt upon the county, but merely makes mandatory the submission of the proposition to the voters. It does provide, however, that should a majority vote for the bonds, they would be carried and issued, and the burden would fall upon property owners, who are in no way liable to damage.

The logical way, according to Mr. Treadwell and others, who have made a close study of the situation, is to form assessment districts and pay according to direct benefits received.

At all meetings held in Los Angeles committees from the various sections have appeared and stated their approval or disapproval of the measure as presented in the bill, and the protestants as a final resort are appealing to the governor for a just hearing before final action is taken.

CITY CLERK ANSWERS CRITICISM

In reply to the charge against this office of neglect of duty to publish and post "Notices of Intention" to vacate the Wilkinson Tract Alley, along the Southern Pacific right-of-way, as by law, required in all street or alley vacation proceedings, I have to say that no Resolution of Intention to vacate such alley was ever adopted by the Board. As to the validity of the Board's action for closing the alley in disregard of the law prescribing the proceedings to be folowed in such cases, that is matter for which this office should not be held responsible.

NELSON C. BURCH,
City Clerk of Tropico.
